Kumar Organic Focuses Growth! Continues to Expand its Presence with the Opening of New Office in Basel

Kumar Organic Products Ltd, company, the leading provider of high-performance specialty chemicals manufacturer is pleased to announce the opening of its yet another new branch in Basel city Switzerland to add to its extending global sales and to meet the market demands. New office expansion enables Kumar Organic Products to provide better services and customer support in Personal Care, Cosmetics and Pharma market in Europe.

In addition to the existing branch office in Luton, Bedfordshire UK, the launch of a local team, responsible for all product distribution and customer technical support, is designed to bring the Kumar's products closer to its customers and give them regionally based Kumar's contacts.

"The decision to assume distribution directly was a logical step in our international market expansion strategy. "In order to be more responsive to the new and diverse needs of our customers who have always been at the center of company's goals, we intend to complement our range of products with highly professional and specialized technical support. With the strong leadership in Antibacterial & Hair care segment, company has taken another leap in launching products under preservative and emollients segment of Green Technology with REACH regulations complied. Company is focusing on greater cover for the Personal care actives markets in Eastern Europe, Baltic Nations and CIS countries as well.

Basel area is also affluent with Cosmetic & Pharma giants (Fortune 500 companies). We expect full support from our partners so that we can make it great success.

Professor in Nanomaterials

The Department of Chemistry of the University of Basel in Switzerland is inviting applications for a professorship in nanomaterials. The Department shares with the University the focal areas nano- and life sciences as well as energy research. Interdisciplinary and interdepartmental research approaches are particularly supported by the Swiss Nanoscience Institute.

Your position

An ideal research profile should complement both the Department's portfolio and the NCCR Molecular Systems Engineering initiative. He or she will be engaged in the self-management of the Department, and will contribute to teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The position can be filled either at the assistant (tenure-track) or the associate professor level. The University of Basel has an established program for career progression allowing promotion to associate and full professor upon successful evaluation.

Your profile

The successful candidate will have an internationally recognized research program, an outstanding publication record, strong communication and teaching skills. We are particularly interested in exceptional candidates developing, characterizing, and exploring inorganic nanomaterials.

We offer you

The Department of Chemistry offers an internationally competitive research facility in an inspiring and supportive scientific environment. The Department is located near the center of Basel, a town which provides a stimulating and supportive atmosphere for interdisciplinary research thanks to the strong presence of science institutes as well as the chemical and pharmaceutical industries.

Application / Contact

Applications, including CV, list of publications and a short research summary, should be sent by email as a single pdf to Prof. Dr. Martin Spiess, Dean, Faculty of Science, University of Basel, Klingelbergstrasse 50, 4056 Basel, Switzerland (dekanatphilnat@unibas.ch). For informal inquiries please contact Prof. Dr. Marcel Mayor, Head of the Department of Chemistry, University of Basel (vorsteherchemie@unibas.ch).

The deadline for receipt of applications is April 30, 2018. The University of Basel is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages applications from female candidates.
